Chief Harbor Patrol Officer Recruitment Extended – The search for a new Chief Harbor Patrol Officer has been extended, with an application submission deadline of December 2, 2016. This position presents an exciting opportunity to oversee Harbor Patrol activities, work with a great group of Harbor Patrol Officers and the rest of the District Employees, all who are dedicated team players. We look forward to filling this position with a great individual. The specific information can be found at <http://www.portsanluis.com/2170/Employment>.

Election 2016 – Congratulations to incumbents Bill Barrow and Jim Blecha, and Bob Vessely on their recent success in the 2016 Election for a position on the Port San Luis Harbor District Board of Commissioners.

Electronic Message Board – Coming soon, District staff will be re-installing the message board at the entrance to Harford Landing. The board will be activated with important messages, usually regarding conditions such as high surf.

Holiday Closures in November – The District office will be closed on Thursday, November 24th and Friday, November 25th in celebration of the Thanksgiving holiday.

FAQ's/ Moorings - Each month we will feature a Frequently Asked Question (FAQ), this month we are exploring Mooring Information. There are approximately 175 privately owned moorings in the harbor. Patrons own their hardware and lease the mooring space on a quarterly basis. New moorings are placed on the outside edge of the existing mooring area. Location of moorings is based on seniority.
